

ICA membership up

The Insulation Contractors Association of New York City, Inc. (ICA), announced that it has expanded the membership of the organization.

The Association works as a representative to the members for the purpose of bargaining collectively with labor organizations, including The International Association of Heat & Frost Insulators & Allied Workers Local 12 of New York City.

The ICA mission is to take positive steps to protect the industry by gathering and sharing information of interest and by discouraging unfair methods of competition. The Association is comprised of the highest quality insulation contractors in the industry while engaging in research and public education for the benefit of their members, and is committed to sharing information necessary to the efficient operation of the businesses of members.
